

Gustav Adolf 2023

SYMPOSIUM, MUSIC, AND POETRY

Tartu, Monday, November 6th, 2023

The Department of Scandinavian Studies will for the 14th year in a row celebrate the Gustav Adolf Day with an event that combines presentation of academic research, music, and poetry connected with Gustav Adolf's time.

I. Scandinavian Values – A Symposium

10.00–15.30, in the lobby of Lossi 3

II. Music and Poetry from Gustav Adolf's Time

16.00–18.00, in the lobby of Lossi 3

Poetry, Lectures, Instrumental Music, and reception

Free admission

Program

I. Scandinavian Values – A Symposium

10.00–15.30, in the lobby of Lossi 3

- 10.00-10.15 Daniel Sävborg, Opening of the symposium
10.15-11.00 Kristi Raik (keynote), “Scandinavian Values and Estonia”
11.00-11.45 Hannu Salmi & Maie Kitsing: “Bridging the gap between formal education and informal learning: Experiences from Estonia, Finland, and Sweden”
11.45-12.45 Lunch break
12.45-13.15 Mikko Lagerspetz: ”Shared Values’, ‘Identity’ and the Nordic Cooperation”
13.15-13.45 Daniel Sävborg: “Scandinavian Values and their Opposites”
13.45-14.00 Coffee break
14.00-14.30 Marina Vahter: ”The underlying moralities of political rhetoric in Sweden”
14.30-15.00 General discussion
15.00-15.30 Leszek Slupecki: “Young scholar between Poland, DDR and Sweden in 1987-1992. Memories from the recent past”

II. Music and Poetry from Gustav Adolf's Time

16.00–18.00, in the lobby of Lossi 3

- “Lars Wivallius – adventurer and poet from Gustav Adolf's time“ (Daniel Sävborg)
Lars Wivallius, Song of the Lark (Øyvind Rangøy, translation and recitation in Estonian)
Lars Wivallius, Lament over this Dry and Cold Spring (Kristel Sävborg recitation, Vootele Valter, recitation in Estonian)
- “Samuel Columbus, Baroque poet in Great Power Sweden“ (Daniel Sävborg)
Samuel Columbus, Sing, O Musae (Kristel Sävborg recitation, Vootele Valter, recitation in Estonian)
Samuel Columbus, A Meditation on Death (Vootele Valter, recitation in Estonian)
- Music by Johann Sebastian Bach (Kristin Tõnisson, viola)
- Swedish folk music (Liina- Mai Põldsepp, violin, Thomas John Gray, guitar)

Reception